

BISCUIT BEAR

ACT ONE - Horace's House

Cast - Horace, Horace's mum, Narrator

Narrator - Our story begins with a lump of pastry that Horace's mum gave him.

Mum - Horace, I've made some pastry. Would you like to make something with this lump I have left over?

Horace - Yes please Mum.

Mum - Please don't roll it about all over the floor and furniture again.

Horace - I won't. I'd really like to cut out some biscuits today.

Mum - Good idea. Here's a bear-shaped biscuit cutter you can use.

Narrator - Horace stamped out a pastry bear and gave it currant eyes and a nose. Then his mum put it in the oven to cook for 20 minutes.

A buzzer rings. Mum takes the biscuit out of the oven.

Mum - Your biscuit looks delicious Horace.

Horace - (excitedly) I can't wait to eat it!

Horace picks up the biscuit and lifts it to his mouth.

Mum - No Horace, it's too hot! You need to wait for it to cool down.

Narrator - Horace went off to build some Lego. An hour later he remembered the cooled biscuit bear and picked it up to take a bite.

Mum - No Horace, you are just about to have your dinner. You will spoil your appetite.

Horace - Oh okay Mum. Maybe I can eat it after dinner.

Narrator - Before bedtime Horace thought of the golden biscuit bear and gazed at it.

Mum - No Horace, you have just cleaned your teeth!

Horace - Oh Mum, the biscuit looks so delicious. I wish I could eat it. I'll keep it somewhere safe for tomorrow.

Narrator - Horace put the biscuit bear in a little tin and put it on his pillow.

Horace (sleepily) - Goodnight Mum.

Mum - Goodnight Horace.
