Dear Jacob,

I am writing to insist that you read Code name Bananas Written by David Waliams. This book has adventure, comedy and action. It has a little 11 year old boy and his uncle Sid who save a gorilla called Gertrude. They have to go to the sea side to escape the police and it was a good thing as well because there was a evil nazi plot in 1940.

I thought it was very funny and i think you would really like it. I really think you would enjoy it because in some times it's sad and in some places in the book is happy.

I Really think you will enjoy it
